

Cambridge University Chamber Choir

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS (2021–22)

- 22 November St Cecilia's Day Concert
A programme of a cappella music for the Feast of St Cecilia, including Britten's Hymn to St Cecilia; directed by Harry Guthrie; lunchtime concert; venue and rehearsals tbc
- 22 January Brahms's *Ein deutsches Requiem with Cambridge University Orchestra and the choirs of Clare, Gonville and Caius, Jesus and Selwyn Colleges; conducted by Dan Hyde; in King's College Chapel; rehearsals likely to be on the evenings of Tuesday 18th, Wednesday 19th and Friday 21st January, and between 12.30 and 15.30 on Saturday 22nd January
- Feb / Mar Music by Purcell and Bach with members of Cambridge University Collegium Musicum, directed by Nicholas Mulroy; venue and rehearsals tbc
- 19–27 March Chesnokov All-Night Vigil, Op. 44
with St John's Voices, directed by Graham Walker; concert in St John's Chapel on Saturday 19th March; Naxos recordings in St John's College Chapel on 25–27 March; rehearsals tbc
- 24 April A Polychoral Extravaganza (Tallis's Spem in Alium and Venetian repertoire, including reconstructions of Gabrieli's 33-part Magnificat and Nunc dimittis)
with members of Cambridge University Collegium Musicum and students of historic brass at UK conservatoires; directed by Martin Ennis, in collaboration with Margaret Faultless, Jeremy West and Nicholas Mulroy; an afternoon concert in the Great Hall of Girton College; rehearsals in the preceding days and on the morning of Sunday 24th April; rehearsals tbc

Please note that all CUCC events are project-based, and some will require greater numbers of singers in certain voice-parts than in others. As a result, not all those who have a successful audition will be able to take part in all projects.